

Every day, behind closed doors, parents across the UK are forced to send their children to bed hungry. With 13 million people living below the poverty line in the UK, hidden hunger is a very real problem. Trussell Trust Foodbanks provide emergency food to individuals and families who hit crisis, as well as helping them to find longer term solutions and support. There are over 50 Trussell Trust foodbanks across the UK, all run by local people for local people. Find out more at:
